

Wie funktioniert eine global und regional

Gerechte Klimapolitik?

WU
WIRTSCHAFTS
UNIVERSITÄT
WIEN VIENNA
UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS
AND BUSINESS

Podiumsdiskussion im Rahmen des ROCHADE-Projektes

3. Juni 2022, 13 Uhr

Eugénia Da Conceição-Heldt, Professorin TU München

Ottmar Edenhofer, Professor TU Berlin, MCC, PIK

Gabriel Felbermayr, Direktor WIFO, Professor WU Wien

Leonore Gewessler, Österreichische Klimaschutzministerin

Marcus Wadsak, Moderation, ORF

Campus WU, Gebäude LC, Festsaal 2

Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Wien

CONFERENCE PRECEDING THE DISCUSSION

9:30–9:45 Opening Remarks – Prof. Gabriel Felbermayr, WU Wien, WIFO

9:45–10:30 Mitigation policies in a globalized and developing world: the role of structural change and distributional effects (ROCHADE) – Prof. Jan Steckel, BTU Cottbus, MCC

10:30–10:45 Break

10:45–11:15 Putin's war, distributional justice and climate policy options – Lessons from an optimal taxation model for Germany – Prof. Ottmar Edenhofer, TU Berlin, MCC, PIK

11:15–11:45 Global energy regime complexity: the challenges ahead – Prof.<sup>in</sup> Eugénia da Conceição-Heldt, TU Munich

11:45–12:15 Feasibility of climate change mitigation in the real world – Prof.<sup>in</sup> Jessica Jewell, Chalmers University of Technology

Sponsored by: